

Our Fourth Meritorious Inductee into the Class of 2013 is:

Douglas F. Trumbower,

Douglas Trumbower, President and CEO of Trade Eastern, Inc, has over 45 years of professional experience in the Architectural and Engineering profession. Upon graduation from Penn State University in 1966 with a Bachelors degree in Architectural, he joined Smith, Miller and Associates in Kingston, PA and served as Project Manager and Executive Vice President. While with Smith, Miller and Associates, Mr. Trumbower's projects included a 50 million dollar urban renewal program in Wilkes-Barre after the devastating 1972 flood. In 1977 he was also involved in the rehabilitation of the City of Johnstown and the City of Baltimore flood recovery projects.

In 1987, Mr. Trumbower purchased Trade Eastern, Inc., the Design-Build subsidiary of Smith, Miller and Associates. Trade Eastern has provided Design-Build Services for institutional, industrial, residential, educational and commercial projects totaling over 350 million dollars.

Some of his projects included:

- Renovations and additions to the Lake-Lehman Junior-Senior High School and the Ross Elementary School.
- Lake-Noxen Elementary – New School
- Additions and alterations to the Dallas Senior High School.
- Dallas Junior High School – New School
- West Side Vocational/Technical School (now West Side CTC) – New School and Renovations
- Penn State, Altoona – Student Union, Residence Hall, Food Service Facility
- Penn State Wilkes-Barre – Hayfield House Renovations, New Classroom Building
- Wyoming Seminary Library Renovations
- South Wilkes-Barre Disaster Urban Renewal
- City of Johnstown Flood Recovery

Currently Trade Eastern has 50+/- full time design and construction professionals, a fleet of vehicles and a large inventory of construction equipment. Trade Eastern self performs most general construction functions including carpentry, steel fabrication, concrete work and provides custom millwork services through its subsidiary Eastern Millwork, LTD.

Doug has received numerous awards and recognitions over the years from the NEPA Building Industry, The Luzerne County Conservation District and The Northeast Chapter 803 Pheasants Forever.

Doug is an outdoorsman, naturalist and is dedicated to wildlife preservation and conservation.

A 1961 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, Doug was member of the National Honor Society and participated in Band, Chorus and Senior Plays.

In his spare time Doug enjoys auctioneering, giving advice, napping and according to Bonnie: admiring pretty women!
