

Meritorious Inductee into the Class of 2014

Dr. Carrie A. Houssock

Dr. Carrie Houssock is a graduate of the Lake-Lehman Junior-Senior High School class of 2000. While at Lake-Lehman, Carrie was captain of the Varsity Cheerleading Squad and was selected to the Universal Cheerleaders Association All-Star Team from 1997 to 2000. She was a member of the National Honor Society and was nominated Homecoming Queen in her senior year.

Carrie earned her Bachelor's Degree in Biology and was enrolled in the pre-med program at Franklin & Marshall College where she was named to the Dean's list for Academic achievement 8 of 8 semesters. While at Franklin & Marshall, she started a Cheerleading Squad and was captain from 2000-2004.

Carrie received her Medical Doctorate from Jefferson Medical College in 2008 and completed her general surgery residency at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital, Philadelphia in 2014. While at Thomas Jefferson, she received the Gibbon Surgical Society Award and the Excellence in Teaching Award.

At the Hospital of the University of Philadelphia, she accomplished her clinical research where she completed over 25 research papers, publications and presentations.

Currently, she is continuing her plastic surgery fellowship at Johns Hopkins University.