

Our Third Meritorious Inductee into the Class of 2013 is:

Raymond Iwanowski, Jr,

Ray is a Managing Principal and co-Founder of SECOR Asset Management, L.P.

Prior to founding SECOR, Ray was co-Chief Investment Officer of the Quantitative Strategies (QIS) group at Goldman Sachs Asset Management (GSAM), a position he held for 11 of the 12 years he spent at GASAM. Before that, Ray worked at Salomon Brothers from 1993 to 1996 as head of the Fixed Income Derivatives Client Research Group and member of the Bond Portfolio Analysis Research Group. At Salomon, Ray authored a number of publications on fixed income asset allocation and fixed income derivatives. He has published articles in the Journal of Portfolio Management (Summer 1996) and the Journal of Fixed Income (September 1997). He worked at First Boston from 1988 to 1990 in the Fixed Income Portfolio Strategies Group, specializing in asset-liability issues for banks and thrifts, as well as valuation of mortgage-backed securities and their derivatives. Ray serves on the Board of Trustees at Good Shepherd Services, a New York based social services agency, and Trevor Day School, a private school in New York City. In addition Ray is a member of the advisory board of the Jacobs Levy Equity Management Center at the Wharton School of the University of Chicago and reached candidacy in the Ph.D. program in finance at the University of Chicago.

Ray is a 1984 Graduate of the Lake-Lehman High School and was ranked first in his class. Ray graduated with high honors and was Valedictorian of his class.

His interests in high school included basketball, tennis and numerous other extra-curricular activities. Ray was awarded the King's College Presidential Scholarship, but chose to attend the University of Pennsylvania.

(Correspondence from Ray – On Back)

Accepting for Ray are his parents: Raymond, Sr. and Julie Iwanowski